BRAND INFORMATION

a) BRAND NAME: Rentomojo

b) INDUSTRY/ NICHE: e-commerce, retail rental, and consumer tech industries

c) ABOUT THE BRAND: Established in Bengaluru in 2014, RentoMojo is a top rental service in India. The company offers monthly plans for electronics, furniture, appliances, and gym gear. This setup helps city dwellers, students, and working professionals get the things they need without paying a lot of money upfront. RentoMojo operates in many big Indian cities. It is a cheap and easy way to get home goods without having to buy them.

d) ASSIGNMENT BRIEF: This assignment aims to identify the most relevant and high-potential keywords for Rentomojo's furniture rental business. The research focuses on analyzing search volume, competition, user intent, and keyword relevance to create a well-structured SEO strategy. By grouping focus keywords, supporting keywords, long-tail keywords, and LSI keywords, the goal is to improve organic visibility, attract the right audience, and support content creation that drives traffic and conversions.

e) ASSIGNMENT OBJECTIVES:

1. To identify high-potential keywords relevant to Rentomojo's products and services.
2. To analyze search volume, competition, and user intent for effective keyword selection.
3. To categorize keywords into focus, supporting, long-tail, and LSI groups.
4. To build a structured SEO content strategy that improves organic visibility and attracts qualified traffic.
5. To support content creation efforts that enhance user engagement and drive conversions.

f) BLOG TOPIC:

"Renting vs. Buying Furniture: The Ultimate Money-Saving Guide for 2026"

g) TARGET AUDIENCE:

- Young Professionals & Corporate Migrants (25–34 years): IT professionals, software engineers, and corporate employees who frequently relocate for work.
- College Students & Bachelors: Students and individuals living in PGs, hostels, or rented apartments seeking affordable temporary setups.
- Young Couples & New Families: People looking for flexible and cost-effective furnishing solutions as their household needs evolve.
- Expatriates & Short-Term Residents: Professionals and foreign residents staying in India for a limited period who need fully furnished homes without long-term commitments.
- Urban Renters: Individuals who prefer subscription-based living and want to avoid large upfront costs associated with purchasing furniture and appliances.
- Startups & Small Businesses: Companies requiring office furniture, appliances, and equipment on flexible rental plans.

h) BLOG GOAL:

- Educate readers about the financial and practical differences between renting and buying furniture.
- Help consumers determine which option is more cost-effective based on their lifestyle and budget.
- Highlight the benefits of furniture rental for students, young professionals, and frequent movers.
- Address common concerns such as upfront costs, maintenance, flexibility, and relocation.
- Drive organic traffic to the RentoMojo website through targeted SEO keywords.
- Generate qualified leads by encouraging readers to explore RentoMojo's rental solutions.

i) INTENT BEHIND THE TOPIC:

- To help consumers compare the costs and benefits of renting versus buying furniture.
- To address common concerns related to affordability, flexibility, maintenance, and relocation.
- To guide users in making informed financial decisions based on their lifestyle and housing needs.
- To highlight situations where furniture rental may be a more practical option than ownership.
- To attract users searching for furniture rental solutions and cost-saving alternatives.
- To create awareness about RentoMojo's rental subscription model and its advantages.

j) PAIN POINTS, MOTIVATIONS, AND RENTOMOJO'S SOLUTIONS:

    RentoMojo's Solution:

    - Quick online ordering process.
    - Fast delivery and installation.
    - Easy return and pickup services.

k) TREANDS:

- Rise of the Subscription Economy – Consumers are increasingly choosing access over ownership through rental and subscription-based services.
- Increased Urban Migration – Young professionals frequently move between cities for education and employment, creating demand for flexible furniture solutions.
- Growth of Remote & Hybrid Work – More people are setting up home offices, increasing the need for temporary and affordable furniture.
- Preference for Flexible Living – Consumers prefer short-term commitments and the ability to upgrade or change products as their needs evolve.
- Cost-Conscious Consumer Behavior – Rising living expenses are encouraging people to seek affordable alternatives to large upfront purchases.
- Demand for Fully Furnished Rental Homes – Renters increasingly look for ready-to-move-in homes with furniture and appliances.
- Sustainable Consumption Trends – Renting supports the circular economy by reducing waste and extending product life cycles.
- Growing Acceptance of Rental Platforms – Furniture, electronics, and appliance rentals are becoming mainstream among millennials and Gen Z consumers.
- Digital-First Consumer Journey – Customers prefer browsing, subscribing, and managing rentals through online platforms and mobile apps.

l) COMPETITOR ANALYSIS: RentoMojo has some competitors in India like Furlenco, Cityfurnish and Rentickle. These companies also give people the option to rent furniture, home appliances and electronics. But what makes RentoMojo different from the others is that it is easy on the pocket. RentoMojo has plans that people can choose from and it also takes care of maintenance for free. If something breaks RentoMojo makes it easy to get an one. People like RentoMojo because it helps them set up their home. RentoMojos competitors are more, about making a place look really nice or just renting things for a time. RentoMojo is different because it focuses on RentoMojos goal, which is to provide a complete home solution through RentoMojos services.
